

Biography

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border is positioned to the left of the text, intended for a portrait of Steve Gill.

Steve Gill
Director, Warehouse and Inventory Division
Farm Service Agency
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Washington, D. C. 20250-0553

Steve Gill serves as Director of the Farm Service Agency's (FSA) Warehouse and Inventory Division (WID), U.S. Department of Agriculture. He had served as Deputy Director, WID, since October 1994.

The Warehouse and Inventory Division is responsible for administering the U.S. Warehouse Act and the operations of the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) related to the commercial storage of producer-owned price support loan commodities and the storage, transportation, and sale or other disposition of commodities acquired by CCC under its producer price support operations.

Mr. Gill previously served as Branch Chief, Inventory Management Branch, Commodity Operations Division from 1991 to 1994. He has held positions as Assistant to the Director, Commodity Operations Division; Branch Chief, Price Support Loan Branch, Cotton, Grain and Rice Division; Agricultural Program Specialist, Price Support Loan Branch; Staff Assistant, Northwest Area Office; Agricultural Program Specialist, Washington State office; County Executive Director, Clark County, Washington State.

He is a native of Yuma, Arizona and is a 1969 graduate of Yuma Union High School. In 1973, he received a B. S. degree in Animal Science and Agricultural Education from the University of Arizona.

Mr. Gill has received numerous Certificates of Merit and Special Achievement Awards and in 1989 received the Administrator's Award for Service to Agriculture, ASCS's highest honor.

Mr. Gill and his wife, Anne Marie Dubey, have two children and reside in Manassas, Virginia.